

The Werkgemeenschap Informatie- en Communicatietheorie (WIC) and the Horizon 2020 ITN PriMa (Privacy Matters) jointly organise the WIC Midwinter Meeting:

AI and Privacy – Regulatory, Technical and Scientific Perspectives

Date: 4 February 2022
Venue: Online. A link will be provided after registration.
Organizer: Raymond Veldhuis, University of Twente, PriMa

Program:

---

09:30 – 09:40	Opening
09:40 – 10:30	Bian Yang [NTNU – Norwegian University of Science and Technology, PriMa] “Privacy protection in the e-health applications”
10:30 – 11:20	David Stevens [Chair of the Belgian Data Protection Authority] “Data protection and AI: two worlds colliding?”
11:20 – 11:40	Short break
11:40 – 12:30	Dick Fens [20Face – Privacy Proof Biometrics] “20face, enabling privacy proof facial recognition”
12:30 – 13:30	Lunch break
13:30 – 14:20	Sigurd Eskeland [NR – Norwegian Computing Center, PriMa] “Privacy-preserving techniques and approaches”
14:20 – 15:10	Els Kindt [KU Leuven and Universiteit Leiden, PriMa, and TresSPasS] “Privacy, Data protection and AI: Are we still in control?”
15:10 – 15:30	Short break
15:30 – 16:20	Jasper Goseling [University of Twente, PriMa] “Information theoretical aspects of privacy protection”
16:20 – 17:00	Closing

---

----- REGISTRATION DETAILS -----

- Register through the online form:
<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/wic-midwintermeeting-2022-ai-and-privacy-tickets-225920673817>
(deadline: 25 January 2022).
- Registrations can be cancelled by sending an email to Raymond Veldhuis (r.n.j.veldhuis@utwente.nl) until February 3, 2022.